Dear Parent/Carer,

CHILD ONLINE SAFETY WARNING 'THE MOMO CHALLENGE'

It has recently come to our attention that children are accessing information online about 'The Momo Challenge'. Children are able to access this through YouTube and other social media sites. The Momo Challenge is apparently targeted at teenagers, however recent evidence suggests many younger children have accessed it. The images reported on these sites are both distressing and unsuitable for children.

Please take this opportunity to check your child's online activity and speak to them about staying safe online.

For further information about the social networks your children may use please visit the NSPCC Net-Aware site www.net-aware.org.uk

Thank you for your co-operation and for helping to keep our children safe.

Mrs A Jocelyn
Deputy Headteacher
